

Rob Claar
Co-Founder & CEO

Rob creates new businesses that address the unmet needs of patients, doctors, innovators and authorities. He is passionate about developing creative solutions for access to Japan's healthcare market.

Over three decades, Rob has founded, managed and exited a number of businesses including Junicon, a global healthcare marketing research consultancy, and Vorpal Technologies, a MedTech regulatory consultancy.

He maintains a worldwide trust network with leading innovators in MedTech and pharma through optimism, tenacious follow-through and a spirit of collaboration.