

Alan Raby | CEO & Founder, CareMates

Alan Raby is the CEO and Founder of CareMates, a digital care platform for older adults.

Alan has over 30 years of experience in which 20+ years have been spent working in the technology industry globally. He is a serial entrepreneur and intrapreneur. He has ~ 20 years of experience working in Japan and was previously a General Manager with SONY where he was responsible for bringing SONY FeliCa technology, EDY e-money and Osaifu-Keitai from Japan to the US. He is a pioneer in FinTech and launched the first nation wide mobile banking application in the US in 2001.

Alan has a Bachelor of Science (BSC) from the University of Toronto and holds both a CMA and CPA accounting designations. He is a BOD of Excite Credit Union. He resides in San Francisco. Alan is an avid mountain, trail and ultra trail runner.