

Hitoshi Konosu | Project General Manager, Healthcare Business Dept., New Business Planning Div., Toyota Motor Corporation

Mr. Hitoshi Konosu joined Toyota Motor Corporation in 1986. After experiences in the production engineering department and frontier research center, he is currently responsible for rehabilitation assist robot business project in the new business planning division. He is interested in human-robot cooperation systems. Driven by his profound passion for rehabilitation, he has enrolled in a Ph.D. program at Fujita Health University while juggling his responsibilities at Toyota and is diligently pursuing his Ph.D.